Directions

Chiddingfold village is one of Surrey's archetypal villages with a cricket green, a village green and pond, three inns, two 'corner shops', post office, café, chemist, butcher's shop, nursery and primary schools and a new medical centre. The surrounding area has some wonderful countryside ideal for walking and riding and yet there is a mainline railway station just over 2 miles from the village with a journey time to Waterloo of around 55 minutes. Milford village (approx 5 miles away) has an excellent range of local shops including the renowned Secretts Farm Shop, chemist, fresh fish shop and Tesco Express. The historic market town of Godalming, a further 2 miles away, offers a selection of individual shops, restaurants, wine bars as well as superstores and Guildford, 4 miles further on, has a multitude of shops, theatres, cinemas and restaurants. There is an excellent selection of schools in the area that cater for most ages and denominations, both in the private and public sectors. There is a golf course in the village as well as 2 further courses in Milford. The A3 linking the M25 and London's airports is approx 6 miles away while the South Coast beaches are around 23 miles away.
